GUIDANCE AND CURRICULUM

Counsellors Offer Advice To Students Seeking Help

Mrs. Albright, Doug Rotolo, and Tom Smelko talk over the improvements made in the curriculum this year.

Using his free time to look over new programs, Mr. Chapala decides on new courses to be added to the curriculum.

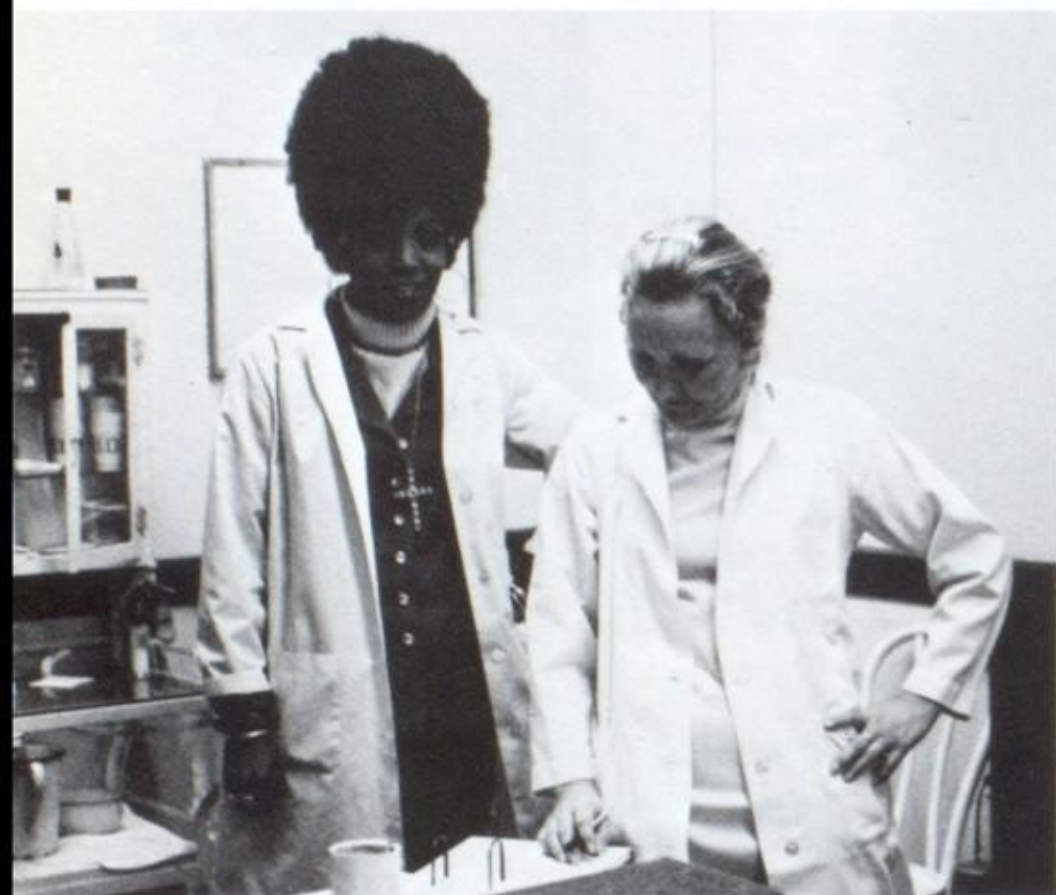

Guidance aids John Bilanich and Greg Tomayko discuss their post high school plans with counsellor, Mr. Ragazzini.

Miss Brogno gives a student, in a dilemma, advice.

SCHOOL SERVICES

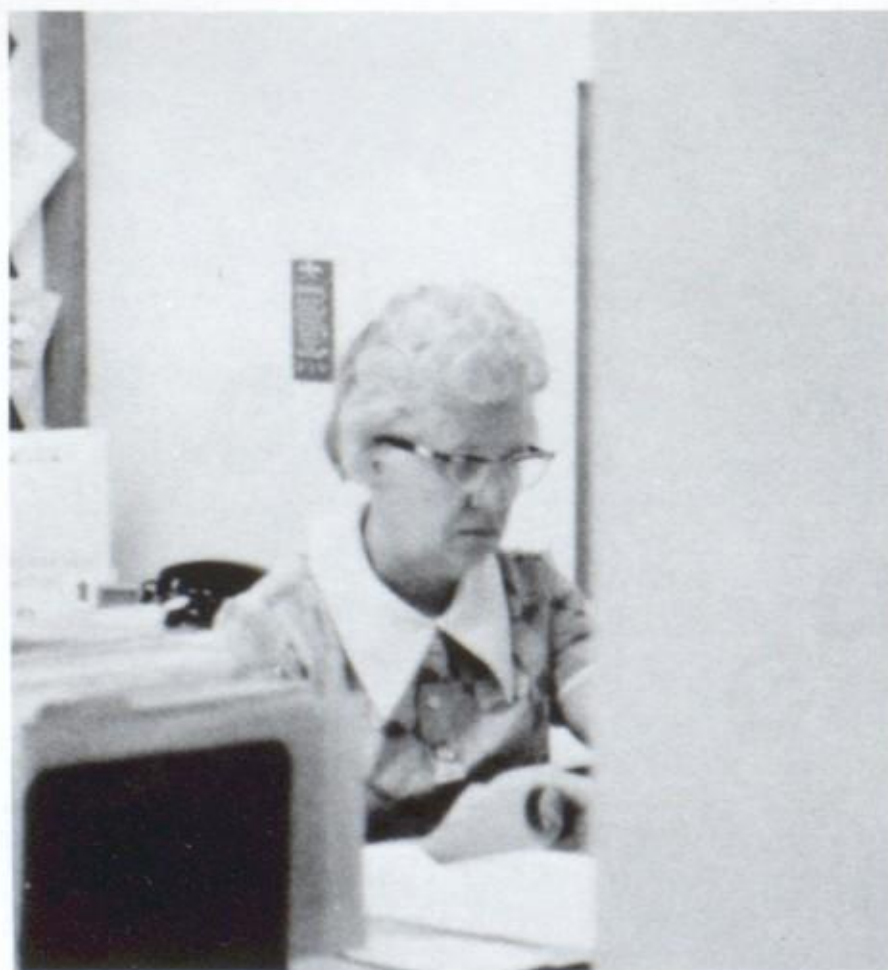

Varied School Personnel Keep The School Running

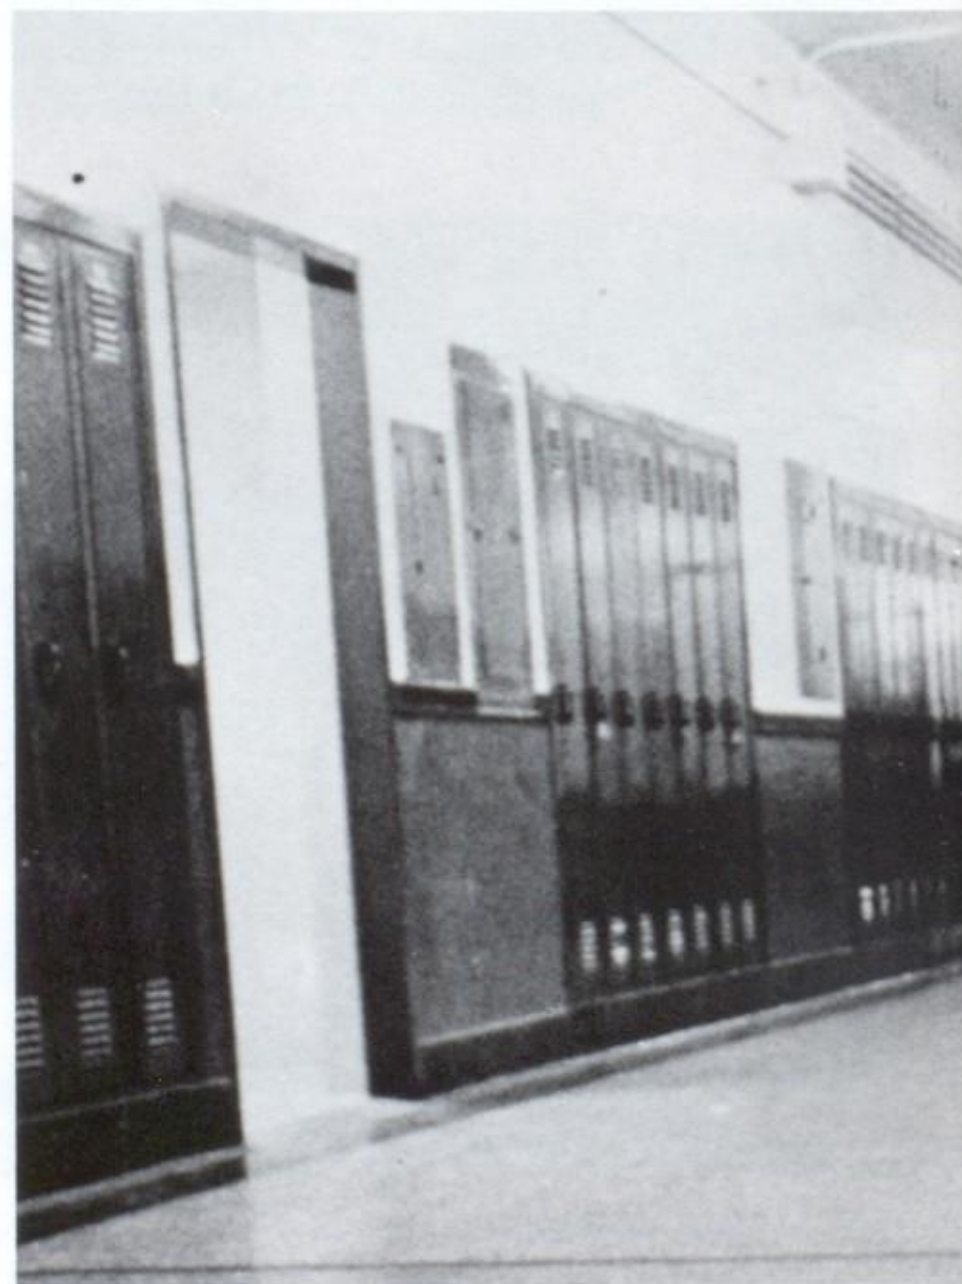

The health suite, under the direction of Mrs. Stolar, provides health services to the students.

Mr. Zoellar discusses business with Miss Yurkew, his personal secretary.

Mrs. Pavlik, the Guidance secretary, types survey forms for the Guidance Counsellors.

Mrs. Yurkew and Mrs. Braddick prepare materials to be distributed to the teachers.

The halls appear empty except for the janitor who makes his evening rounds.

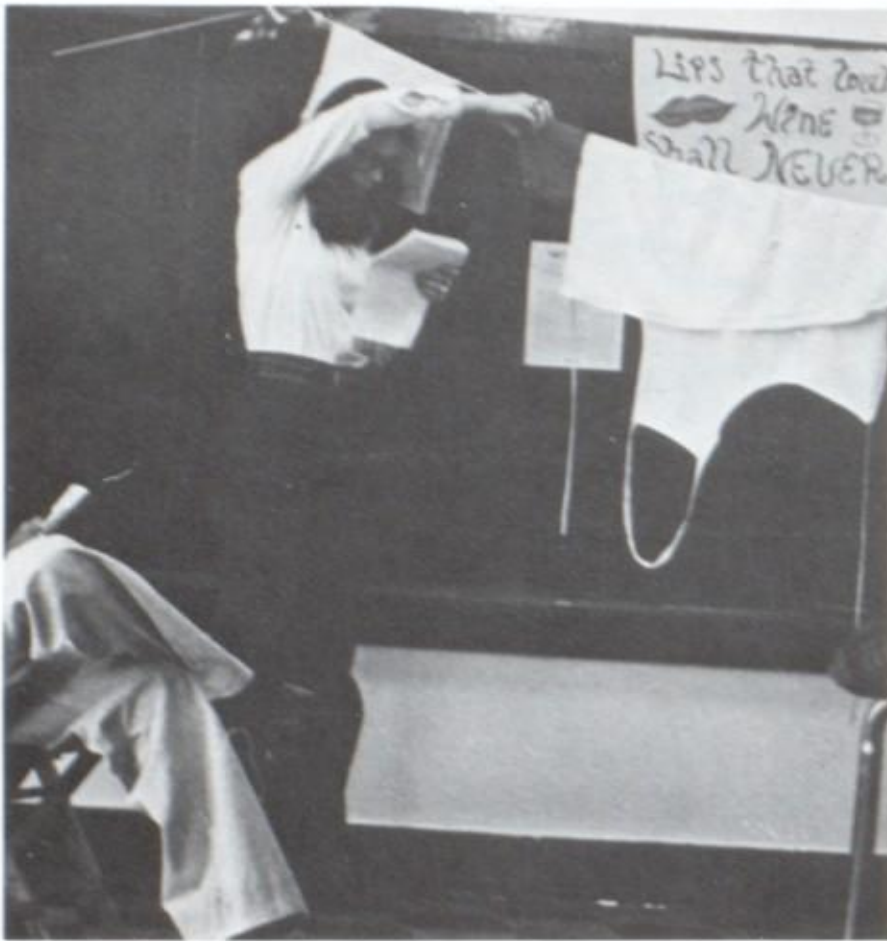

Mrs. Voynick consults Mrs. Persuitte about a problem that has just come up in the Finance Department.

ACADEMICS

English

Junior Sandy Hanshew requests advice from her teacher, Miss Piontek, as she attempts to write a short story in her creative writing class.

Jean Kramer delivers an amusing recitation much to the delight of Mr. Whyte's second period English class.

Mrs. Brubaker's Drama II class performs a very delightful children's classic "The Runaway Presents", for appreciative children living in the Ambridge Area.

In the play "The Fantastics", Joan Livitski adds a showing of color to the otherwise dark feeling of tension that exists between stolid looking characters.

$$\tan \frac{1}{2} B = \frac{R}{s-b}$$

$$\log \tan \frac{1}{2} B = \log R - \log (s-b)$$

$$\log R = 11.0289 - 10$$

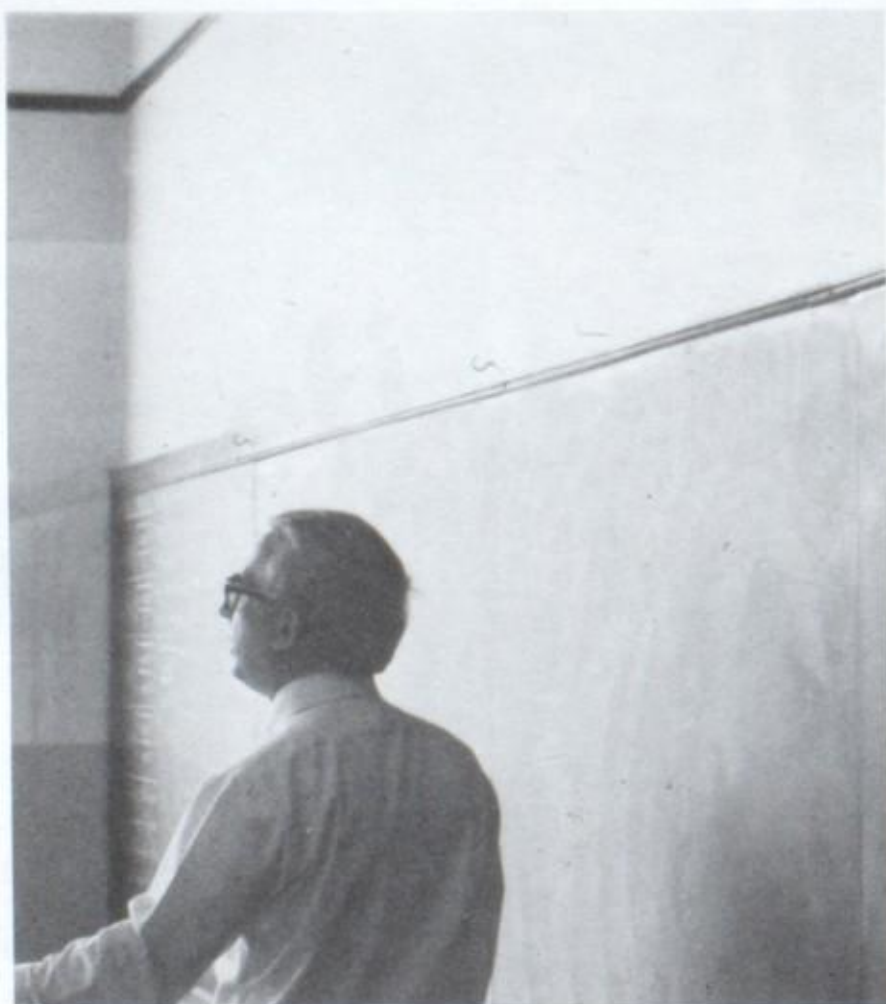

$$\log (s-b) = 1.4472 \quad (-)$$

$$\log \tan \frac{1}{2} B = 9.6357 - 10$$

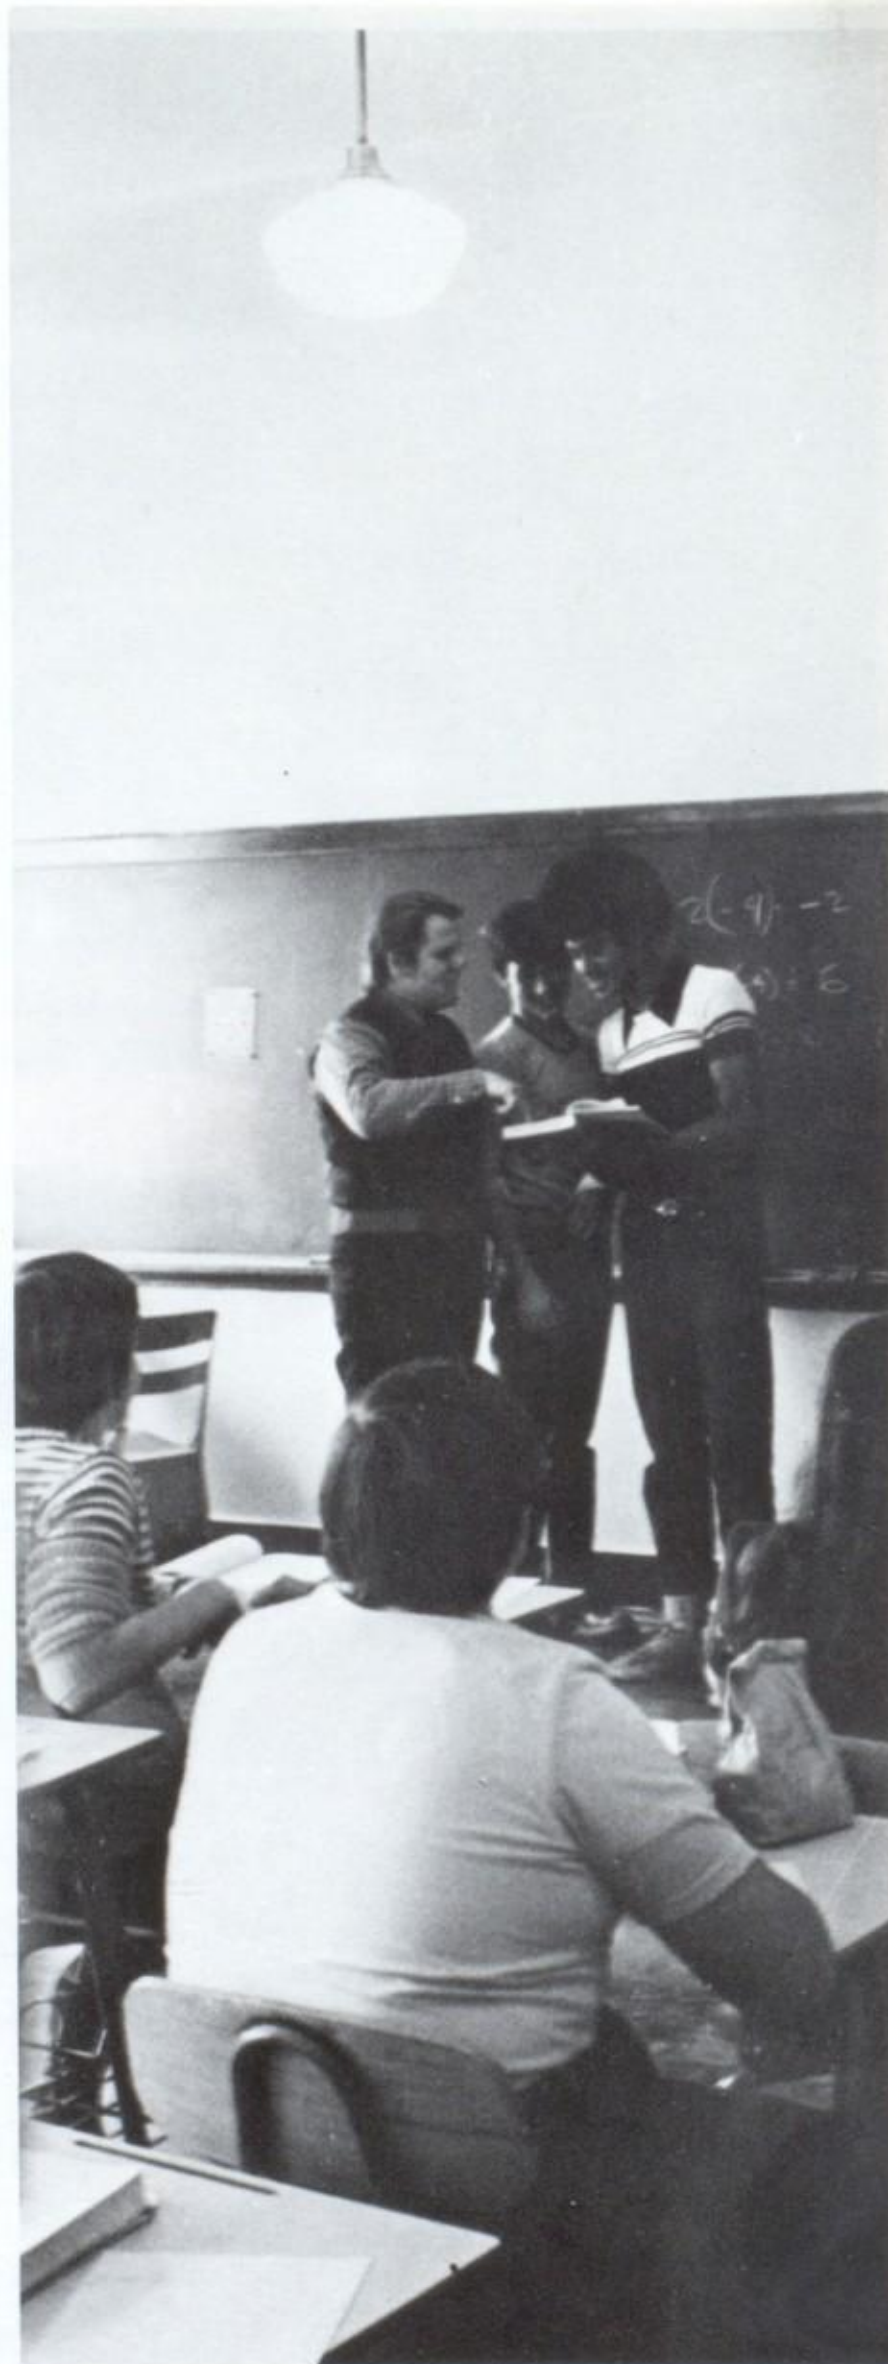

$$\frac{1}{2} B = 23^{\circ} 23'$$

$$B = 46^{\circ} 46'$$

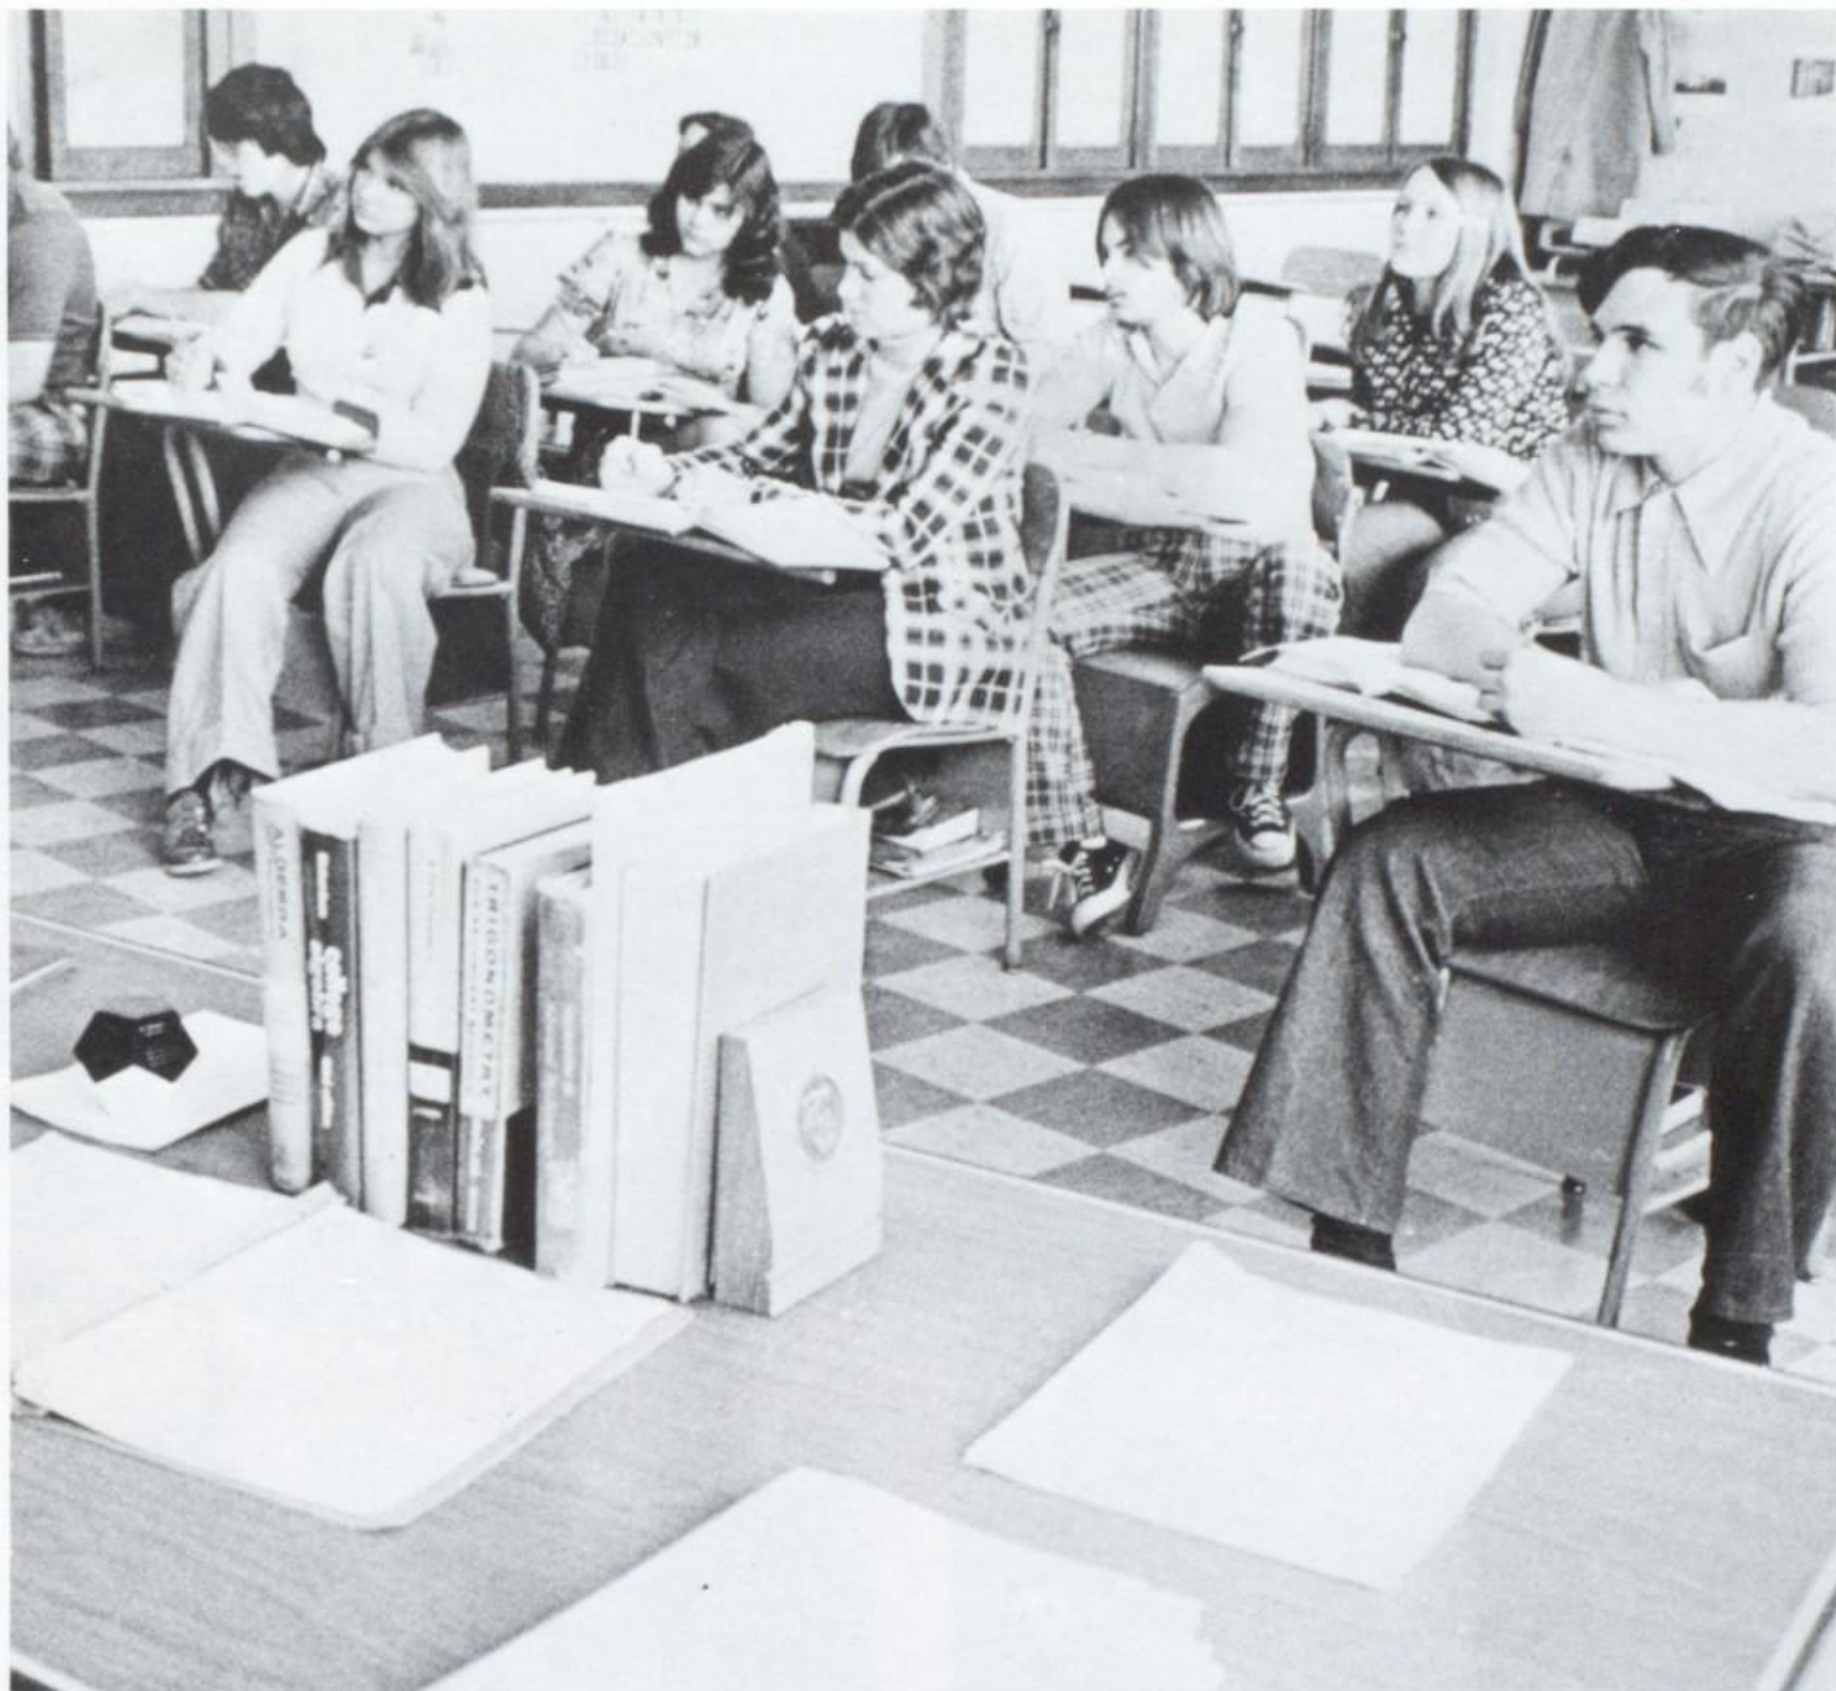

Memorization and mathematical skill are necessary in the more advanced math classes, as this problem demonstrates.

Mr. Tedesco, the Trigonometry and Calculus I teacher, explains the fundamental principles of the next assignment.

Mr. Dolinski explains the method used in achieving the answer to a problem to two of his students.

Seniors in Calculus I class listen attentively as Mr. Tedesco reviews notes and reference problems which will aid them in their next assignment.

Math Department

Mrs. Wilson and members of Concert Choir make preparations for District Chorus.

Betty Jo Kolmen looks on as Natalie Balogh works on her clay sculpture of an owl.

Miss Ciccone shows Dave Karas how to make a stained glass window using a mat cutter knife.

Jean Hawk and Althea McTighe work on clay sculpture during Mr. Grundy's fourth period class.

Fine Arts Department

During her art class, Kris Tuntas takes time out to pose for a picture

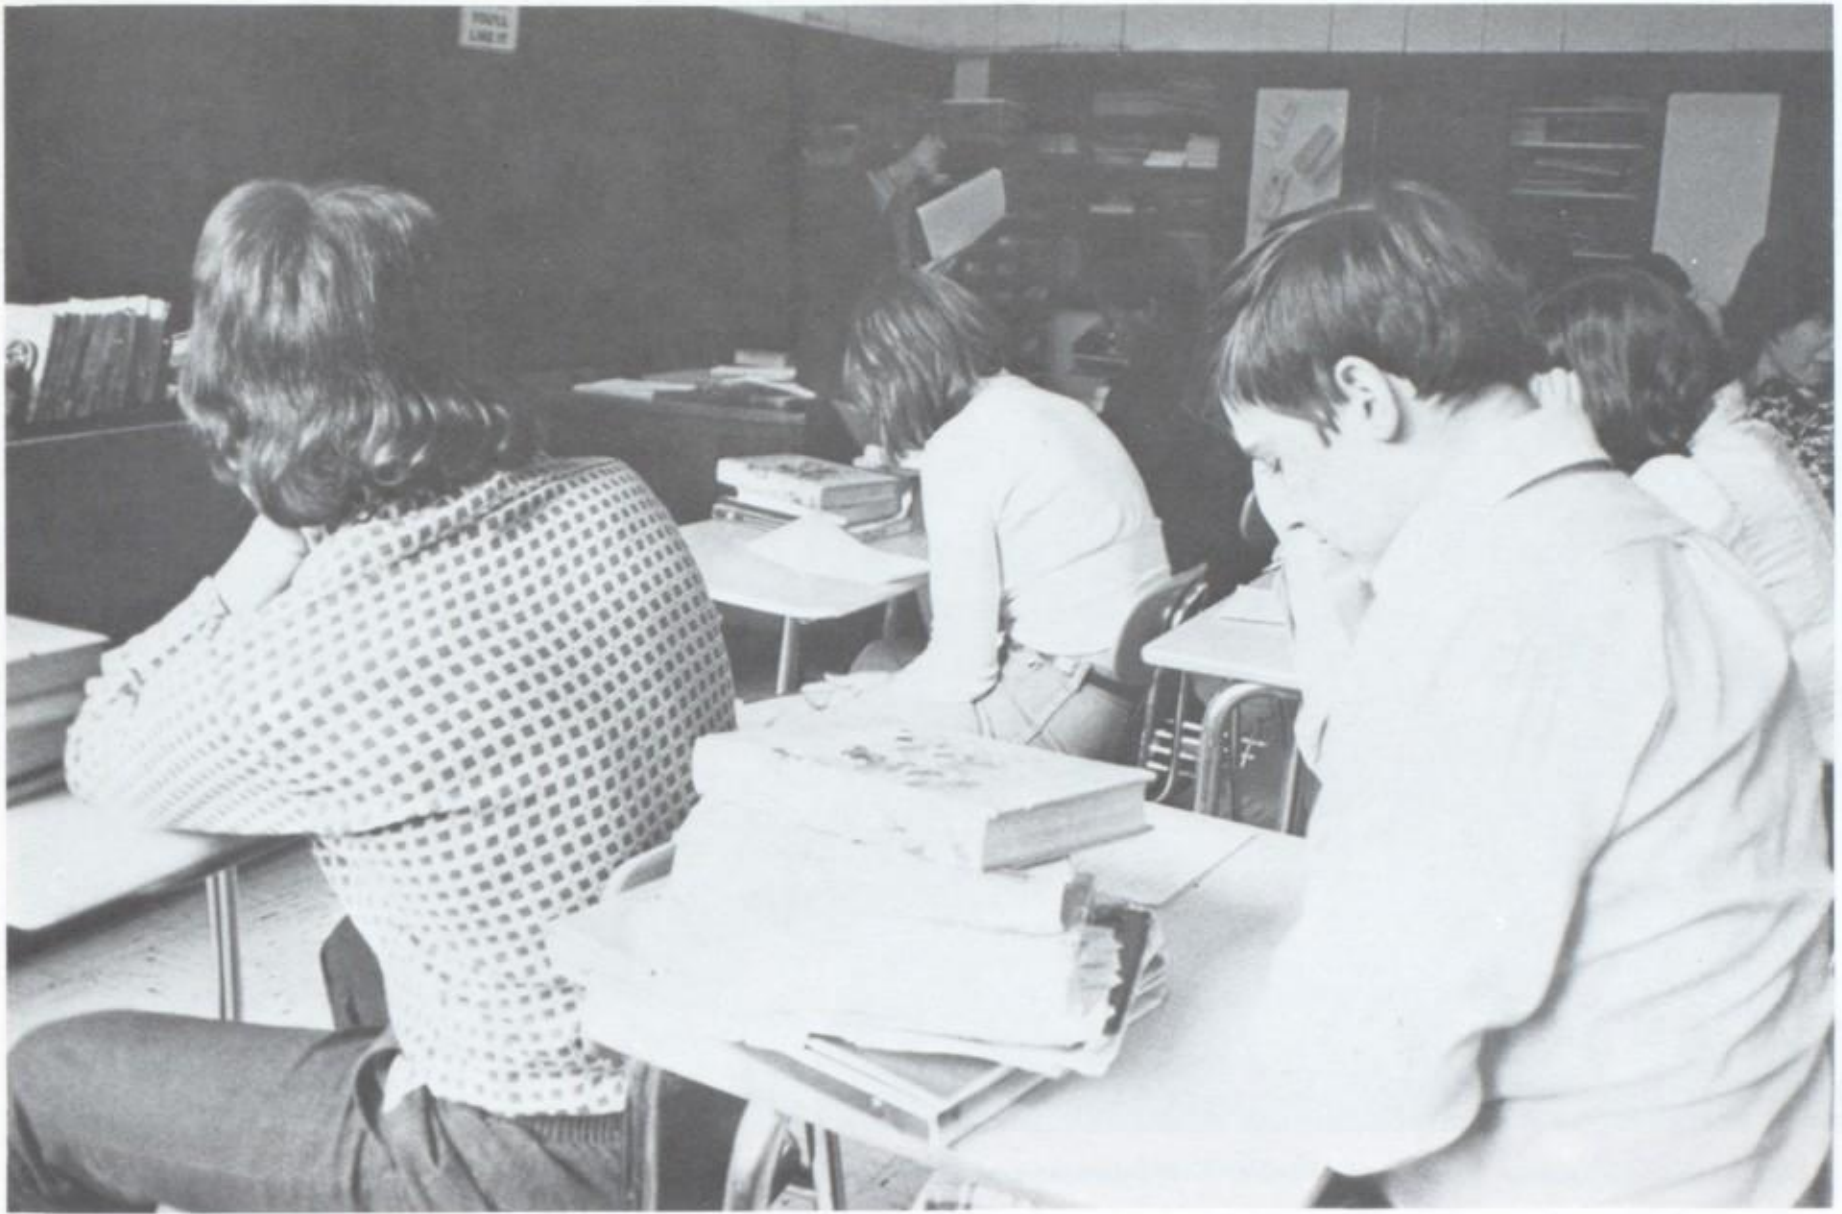

Senior girls improve upon their abilities as they take part in a series of drills that involve dribbling, shooting for baskets, and passing the ball to teammates.

Health and Physical Education Department

Shelley Mayer, a junior and a member of the Yale Princeton team, takes a well deserved rest after practice.

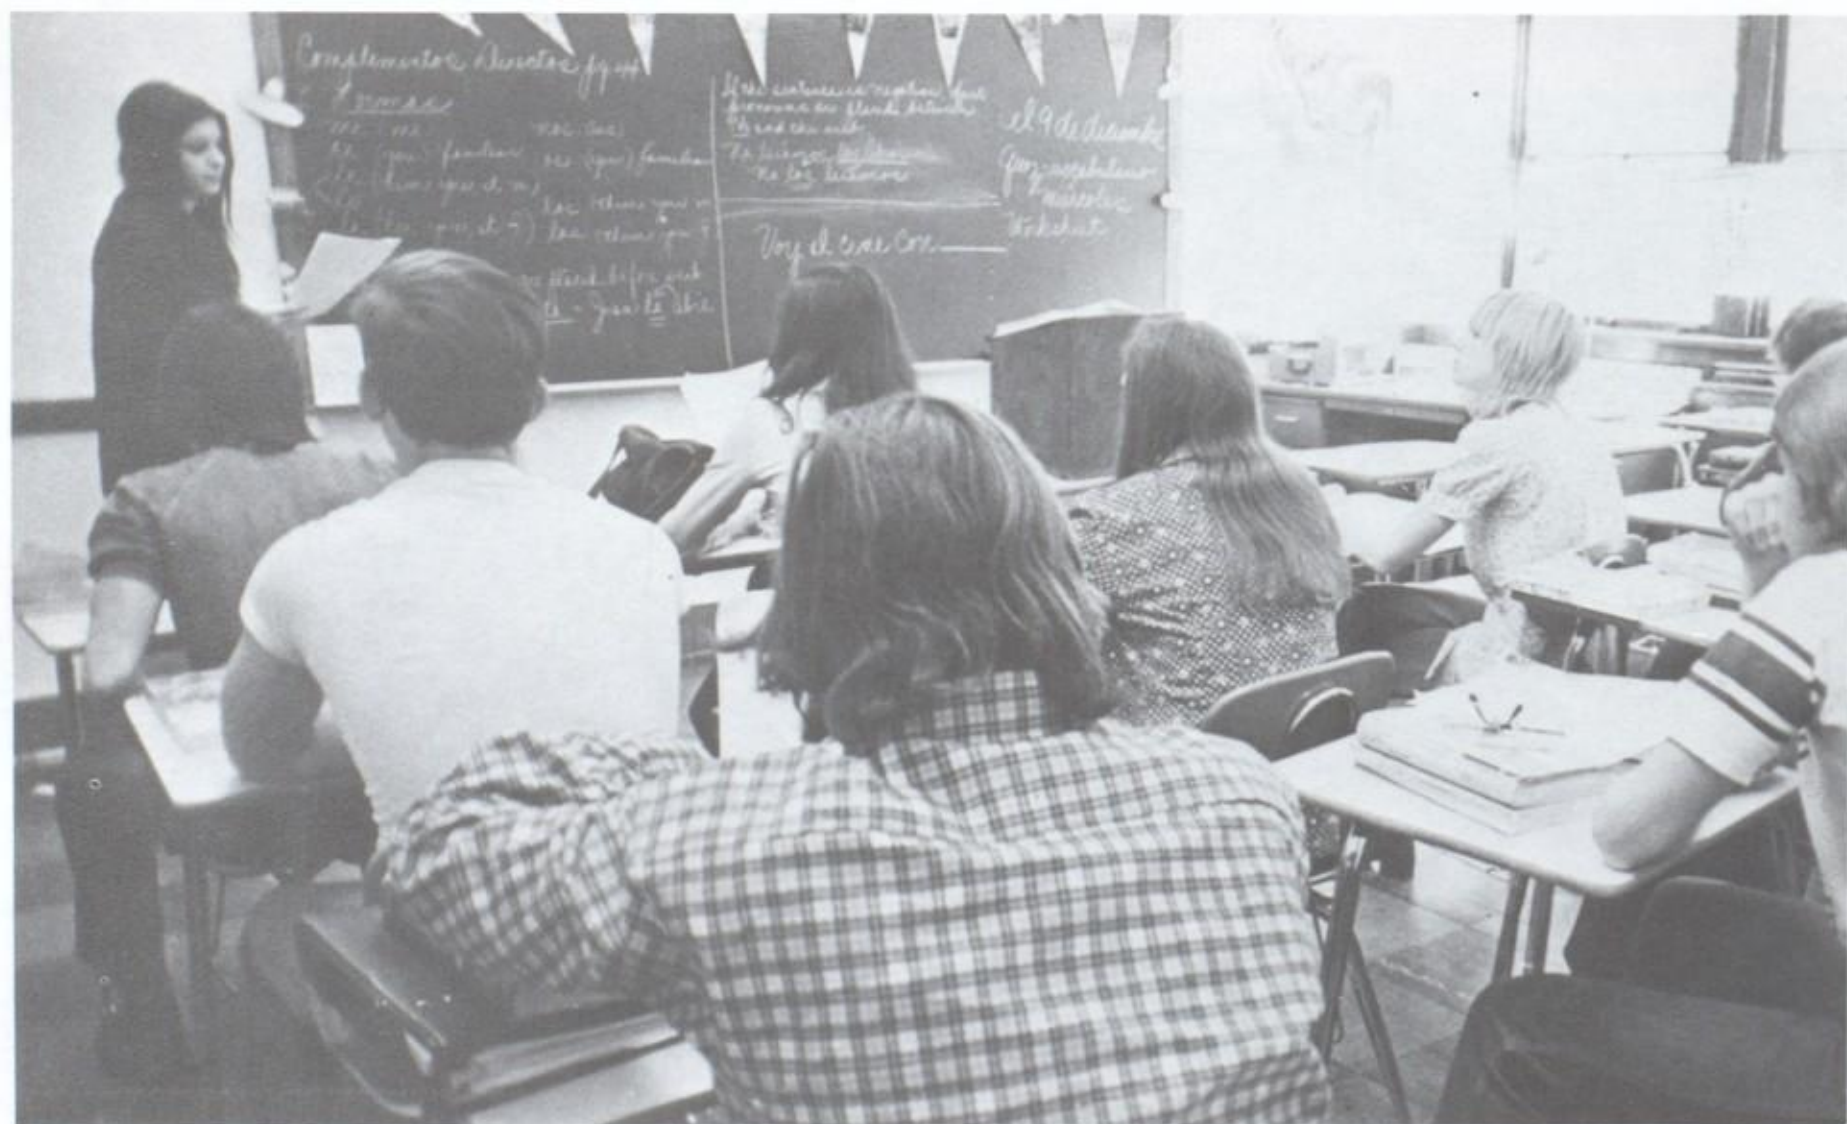

Sophomores in Mrs. Laniewski's Hygiene class listen closely as she discusses some important facts pertaining to good physical and mental health.

In a mixed gym class, tenth grade students enjoy an exciting game of volleyball.

Miss Griffith listens to a student's translation in French II.

Miss Pietrandria reviews the work on the board with her Spanish II class.

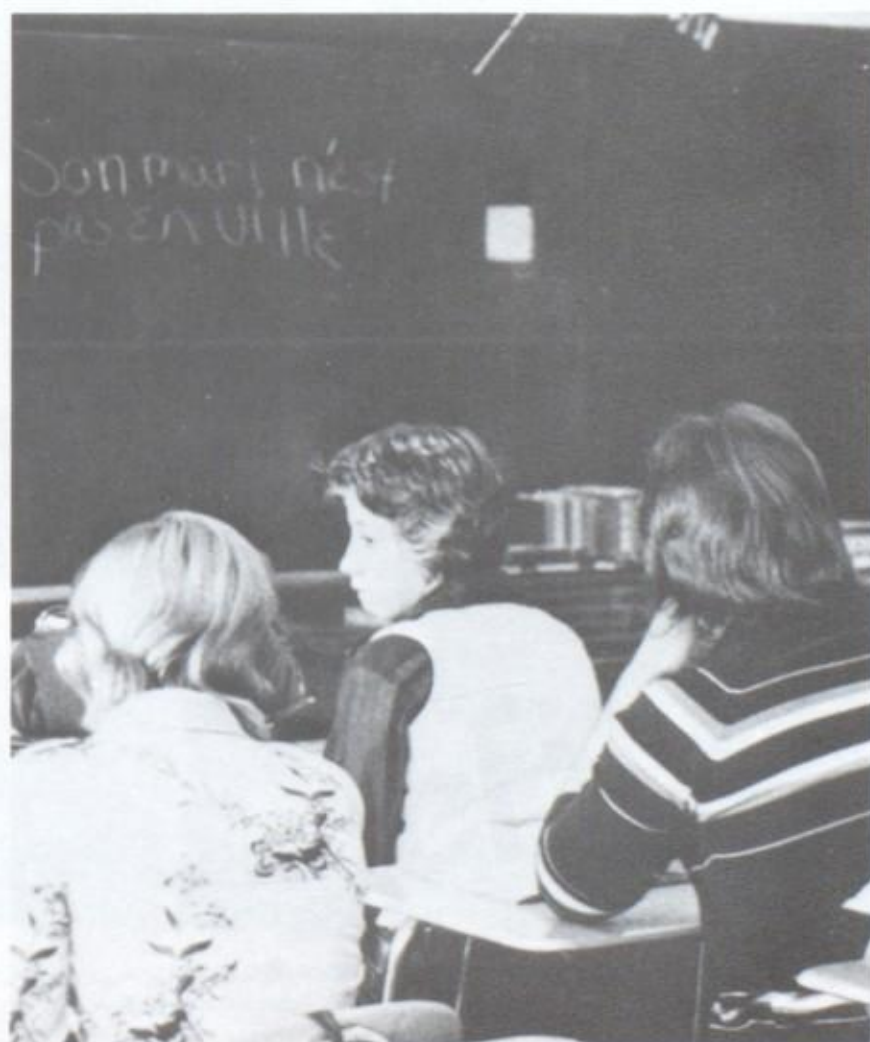

Mr. Matey, who teaches Russian I and II, reviews the important points of a previous grammar lesson, making certain his students understand before he continues.

Foreign Language Department

Italian II students listen to Miss Paniccia as she reads from the text book.

Advanced Chemistry student, John Shulick, works diligently in the laboratory on an important experiment using delicate instruments and patience.

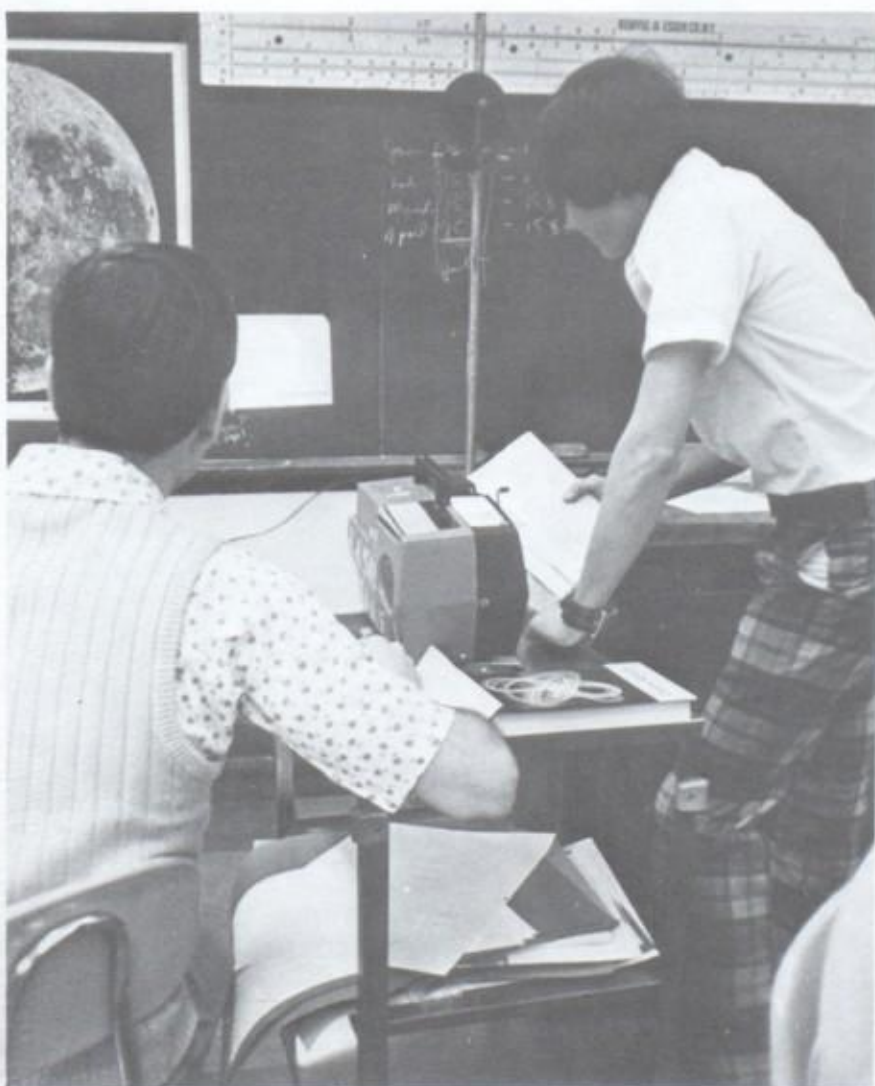

Science Department

During Mr. Kielbowick's third period Physic's class, students are allowed to work at their own pace.

Freshmen Biology students are fascinated by a new microscope's ability to enlarge minute bacteria and amoeba into gigantic monster-like creatures.

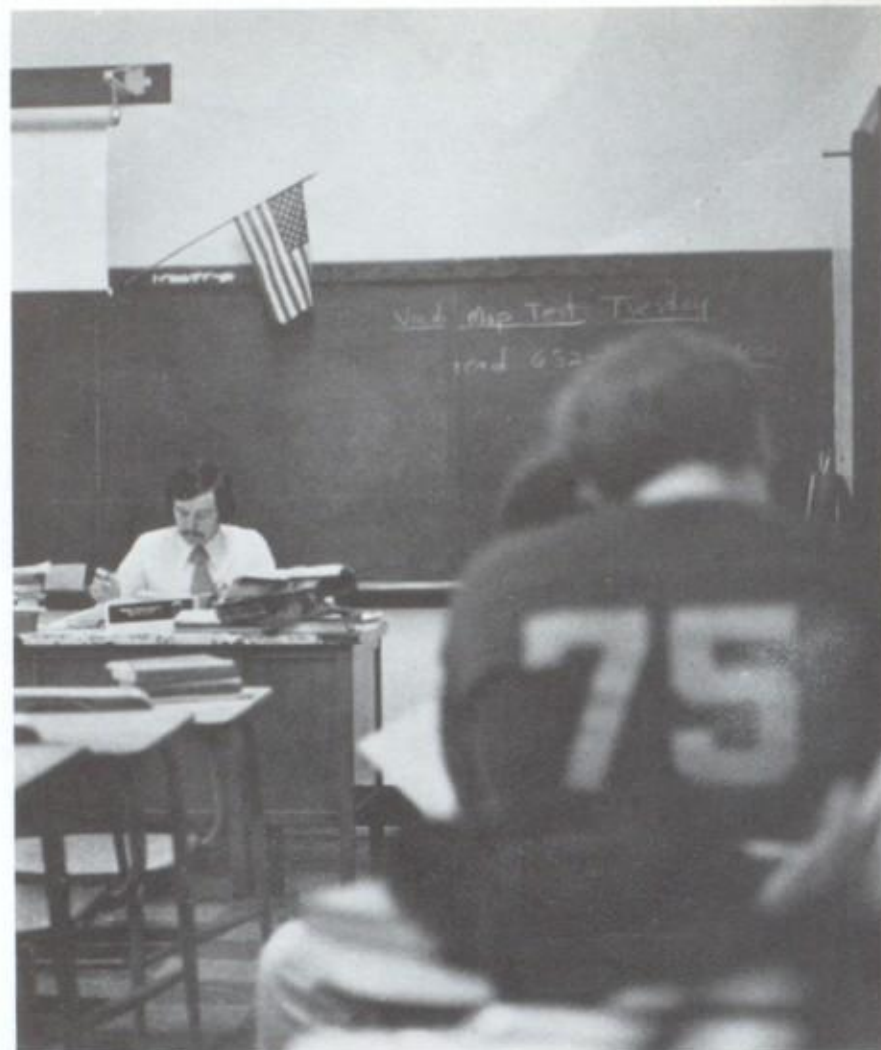

Two of Mr. Kielbowick's third period Physics students, Alex Vasilakis and Dave Williams, do a very interesting assignment.

Ed Falkowski, a student in Mr. Sovich's third period class, makes an interesting observation with a microscope.

Miss Windisch's student teacher, Mr. McKinin, comments on Fran McCulloch's Latin American Project.

Mr. Gilmore's World Cultures class takes notes on the Tigris-Euphrates, one of the first major civilizations.

Social Studies Department

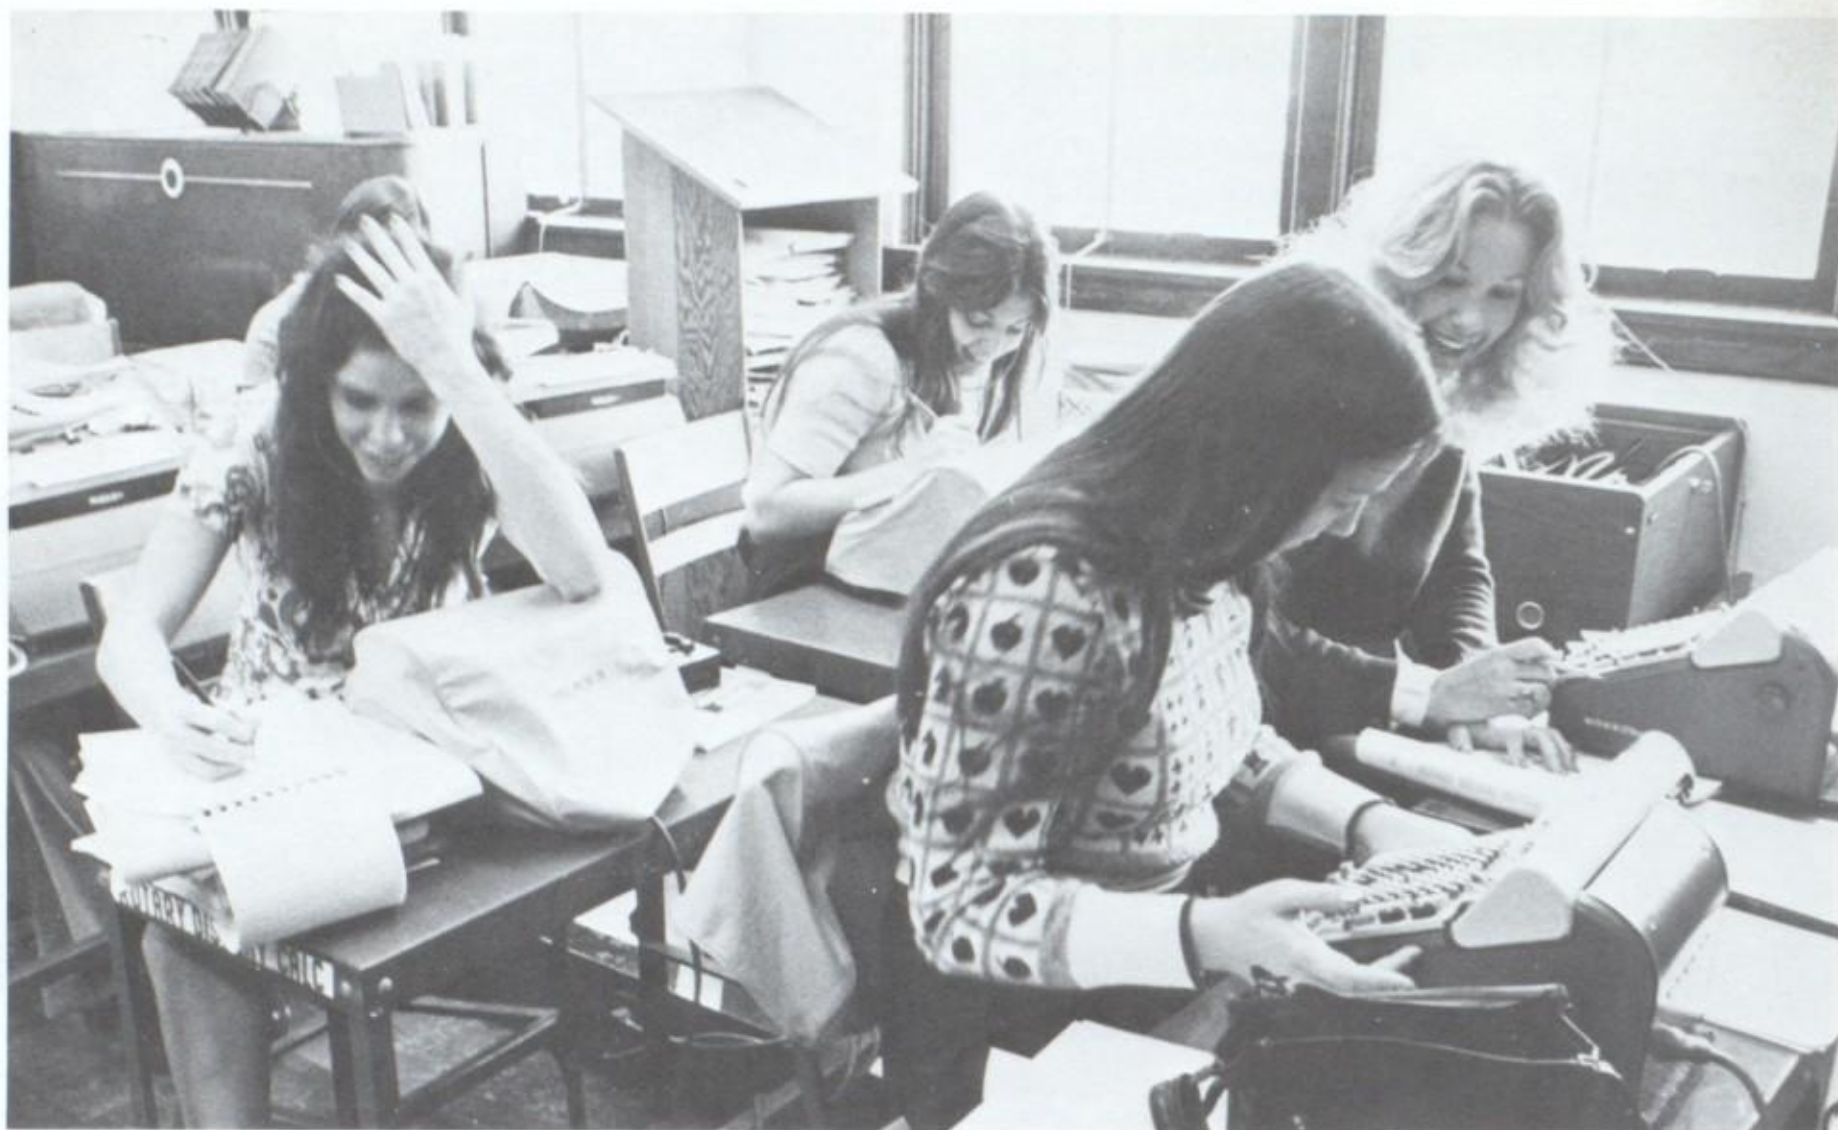

Supervising the debate in Mr. Kovoulo's class Jim Morsillo allows Thomas Gaona to air his opinions.

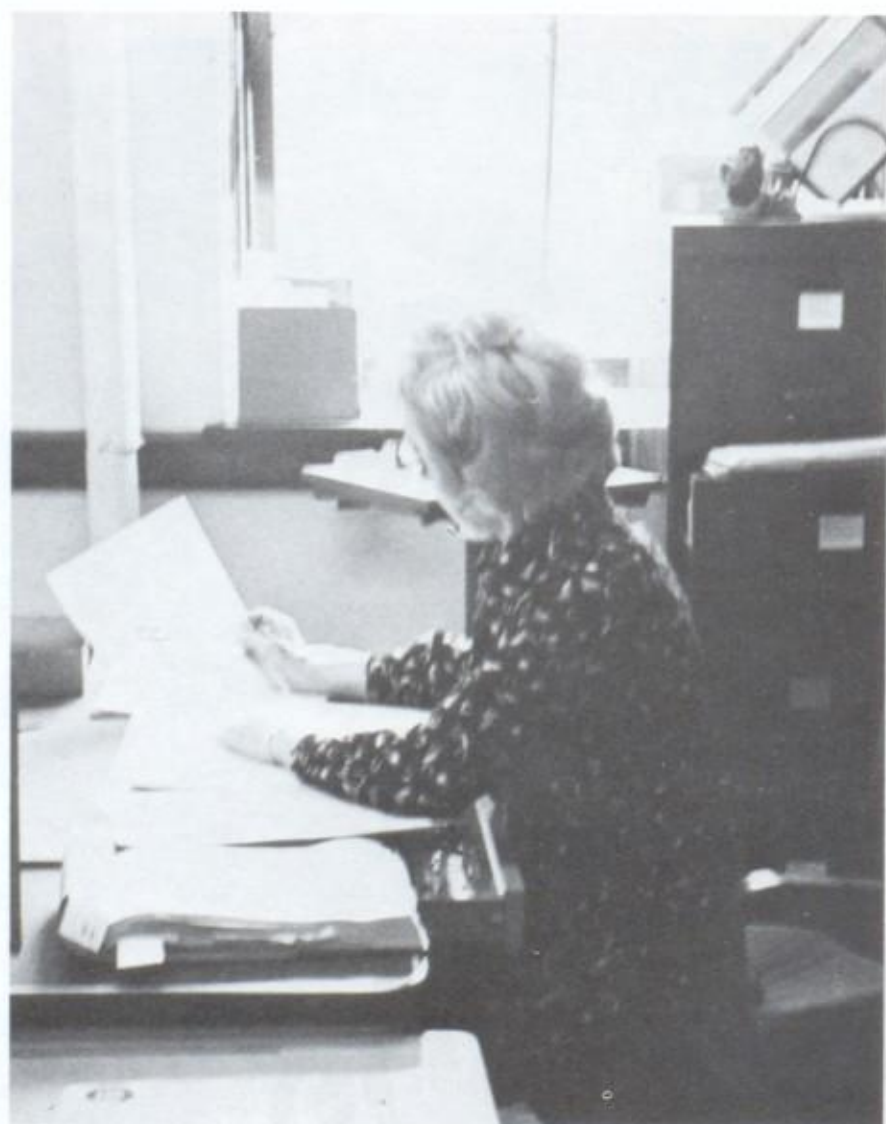

Mr. Solero's classes discuss the topographic features of Africa, such as the Libyan Desert, the Nile River and the Victoria Falls.

Office Practice, one of the many courses business students take, instructs them in the proper method of using adding machines.

Debbie Burnett, a Business student, concentrates on keeping her errors to a minimum.

Typing teacher, Miss Adams, checks recent drills and assignments for typographical errors.

Concentration, which plays an important part in the increasing of speed and accuracy, is stressed in Typing II classes as well as others.

Commercial Department

James Syzmoniak and Thomas Livengood cut wood for their project in Mr. Heitzenrater's class.

Sophomores Joseph Max and John Heinz inspect the car's engine for malfunctions.

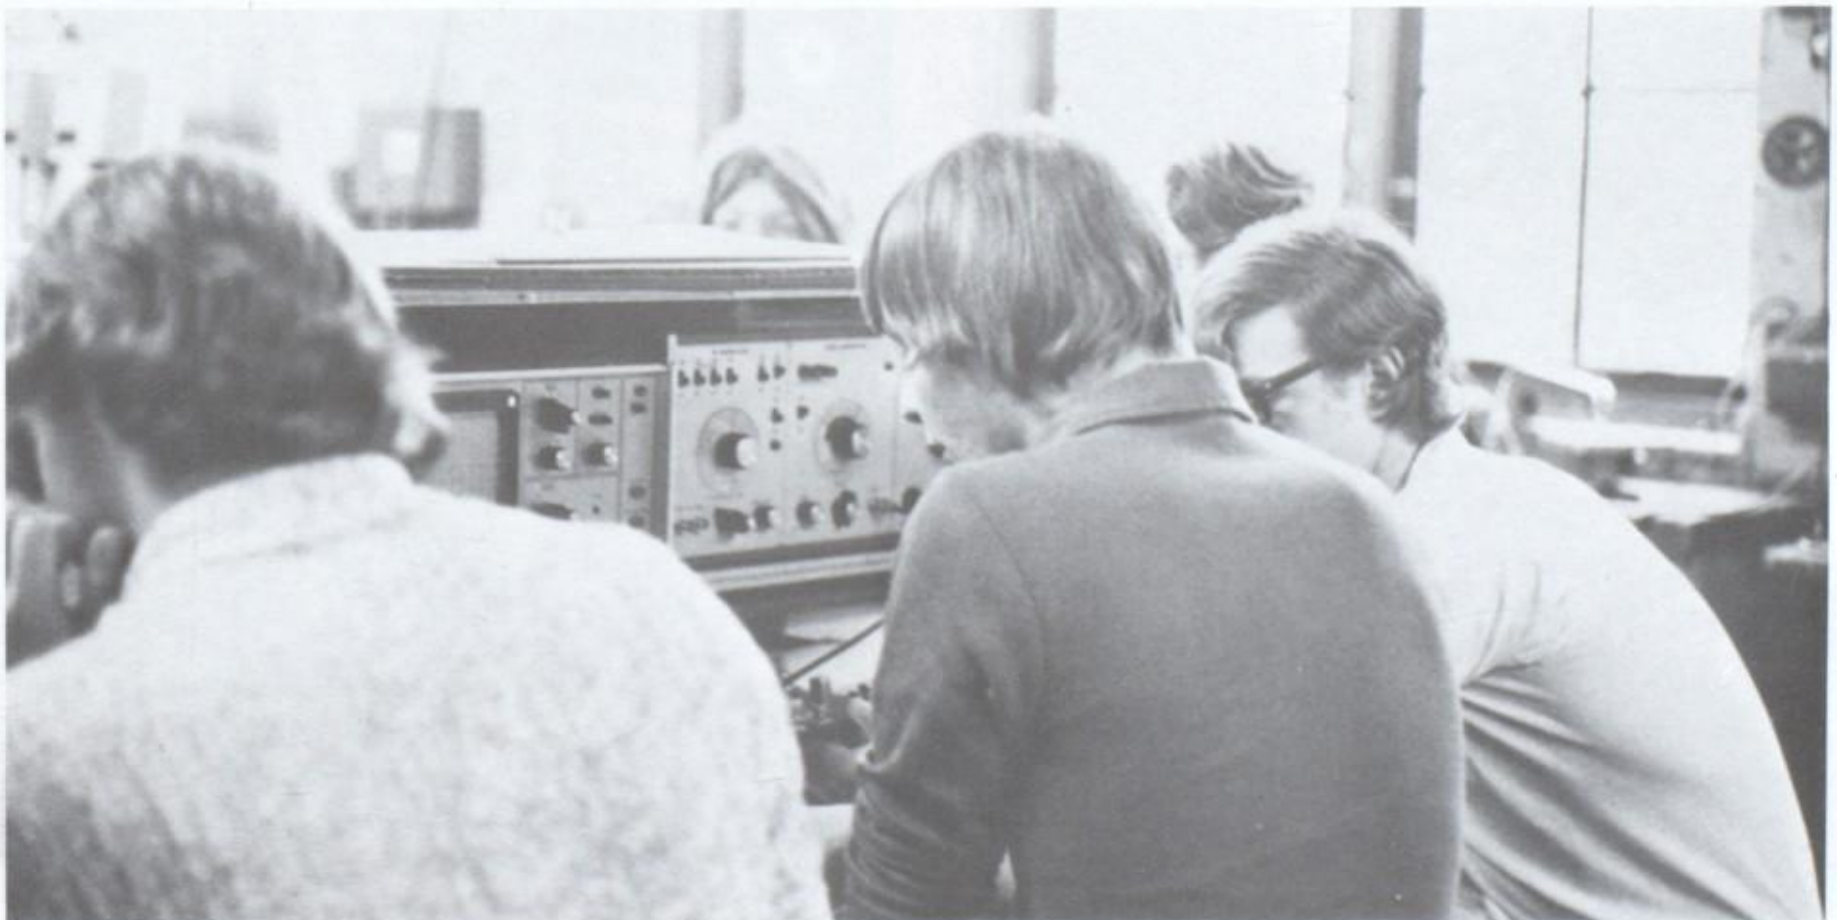

Bob Krol, a sophomore student, learns how to operate delicate and complicated machinery.

HAPPINESS HAPPINESS
HAPPINESS

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING?

Self-insight, creativity, happiness. They're all qualities that aren't easy to find. But some suggest that you try pills, needles, and capsules in the search. Some of the last generation suggested materialism. It is unlikely that peace, happiness, and love can be found at the end of a long list of possessions, nor is it likely that they can be found at the end of a chemical reaction.

Each of us must find his own answers.
